

Taproom Reservation Policy

Blue Stallion Brewing Co.

Blue Stallion has 2 options for available space

Loft area

Seats 20 people, holds approximately 25 people sitting and standing. Space has a television with HDMI connection and a leather couch along with several hi-top tables. This is the only reservation area considered “semi-private”.

Upper-lounge and loft area

Seats 46 people, holds approximately 55 people sitting and standing. Space includes everything loft has along with an additional couch, loveseat, and leather chair, long table for 12, low-top tables for 8, and access to dart boards and uni-sex bathroom. This space does not include the pool table room.

Sorry, we are not able reserve the lower –lounge area or restrict access to the lower-lounge or billiard rooms during reservations. Attendees to a reserved event are welcome to sit at tables in the lower-lounge or bar area, but those tables cannot be reserved before the attendees arrive.

Paid reservations are in 4-hour blocks.

Food Policy

Outside food is welcome at Blue Stallion Brewing however we ask that you remove your food waste before leaving, a $25 cleanup charge will be added for spaces left with outside food after an event. Food can be setup in the upper-lounge along the dart-board wall or in the loft along the wall. We can provide a small folding table for food given adequate notice but do not have table clothes available.

We do allow outside soft drinks for reserved events, but our malt beverage and brewery licenses do not permit outside alcohol (beer, wine, & liquor) under any circumstances. Events caught with alcohol on premises not sold from the taproom will be asked to leave.

Decoration and Setup Policy

If you plan to decorate your space for an event, we ask that you clean up all the decorations before leaving, a $25 cleanup charge will be added for spaces left with decorations or other outside materials after an event. Do not use duct tape, thumb tacks, or other materials that would leave a permanent mark on the space. Computers or slideshows can be set up on the loft television using HDMI with the prior approval of Blue Stallion Brewing.

Large Group Tabs

It is Blue Stallion policy to add 20% tip to all group tabs over $100.
