

Taproom Reservation Policy

Blue Stallion Brewing Co.

Blue Stallion has 2 options for available space

Loft or Upper-Lounge area

Seats 20 (Upper-Lounge: 25) people, holds approximately 25 (Upper-Lounge: 30) people sitting and standing. Only the loft space has a television with HDMI connection and a leather couch along with several hi-top tables. The loft is the only reservation area considered “semi-private”.

Upper-lounge and Loft area

Seats 45 people, holds approximately 55 people sitting and standing. Space includes everything loft has along with an additional couch, loveseat, and leather chair, long table for 12, low-top tables for 8, and access to dart boards and uni-sex bathroom. This space does not include the pool table room.

Sorry, we are not able reserve the lower-lounge area or restrict access to the lower-lounge or billiard rooms during reservations. Attendees to a reserved event are welcome to sit at tables in the lower-lounge or bar area, but those tables cannot be reserved before the attendees arrive.

Paid reservations are in 4-hour blocks.

Food Policy

Outside food is welcome at Blue Stallion Brewing however we ask that you remove your food waste before leaving, a $50 cleanup charge will be added for spaces left with outside food after an event. Food can be setup in the upper-lounge along the dart-board wall or in the loft along the wall. Blue Stallion Brewing can provide a small folding table for food given adequate notice but do not have table clothes available.

For all reservations there is a minimum $50 tab required at the bar. The tab can include alcoholic & non-alcoholic beverages as well as BSB merchandise. The tab will need to be opened with a credit card prior to the reservation time.

We do allow outside food and soft drinks for reserved events, but NO outside alcohol may be on premises at any time. Events caught with alcohol on premises not sold from the taproom will be asked to leave immediately.

Decoration and Setup Policy

If you plan to decorate your space for an event, we ask that you clean up all the decorations before leaving, a $50 cleanup charge will be added for spaces left with decorations or other outside materials after an event. Do not use duct tape, thumb tacks, or other materials that would leave a permanent mark on the space. Computers or slideshows can be set up on the loft television using HDMI with the prior approval of Blue Stallion Brewing.

Due to previous damage to the facility, these items are no longer permitted for decorations: Balloons, Confetti, Glitter

Large Group Tabs

It is Blue Stallion policy to add 20% tip to all group tabs over $100.

Event Management

Blue Stallion Brewing is a small business providing event spaces for use at a cheap price during its normal daily operations as a production brewery and craft beer bar. The brewery is not equipped or staffed to provide any sort of event management or assistance other than a clean space for your event. If you require more assistance than just use of the space, that must be worked out in writing and paid for with the taproom manager prior to the event.
